THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. Thedford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Thedford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Morgan, Ark., May 25, 1901.
I cannot recommend Thedford's Black-Draught too highly. I keep it in my house all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never gave my children any other laxative. I think I could never be able to work without it on account of being troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that keeps me up.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.
The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.
With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

THE CITY OF MEKINEZ.

One of the Royal Residences of the Sultan of Morocco.

There is no more interesting city in Morocco than Mekinez. Founded and built by Mulai Ismain, the tyrannical sultan who reigned through the middle of the eighteenth century, it still displays the extraordinary buildings which he caused to be erected, largely by the aid of Christian slaves. Today it is impossible even to guess the purposes for which many of these masses of masonry were constructed. Walls of great thickness, some wide enough to drive a carriage and pair along, are met with in the most unexpected places, running here parallel, here at right angles to one another, and seeming as though built for no purpose except for the employment of the vast number of forced laborers that Mulai Ismain always kept at his court. Here and there are gateways of great beauty, such as the delicate tiled gate of "Mansur el-Alj," with its large marble columns and Corinthian capitals, supporting buttress of gray stone and arabesques, but on the whole it is rather the vastness of the buildings than any artistic value that is remarkable.

The old palaces of Mulai Ismain are in ruins today, and each sultan in his turn has erected new residences till the imperial palace today consists of a collection of buildings of every shape and size, scattered among gardens inclosed by high walls. A tower, which was uncompleted at the time of the late sultan's death, remains today just as the workmen left it, with the scaffolding still standing. Adjoining the palace is a large park, in which are kept a number of mares, ostriches and gazelles.

The city itself is tolerably clean, and possesses no particular features that are not common to all Moorish towns. The entrance of the principal mosque is striking, with great bronze doors said to have been brought by the Moors from Spain. The shops are comparatively few, and the trade never large.—London Times.

OUR FIRST FREE SCHOOL.

It Was Established In Massachusetts in the Year 1641.

The first free school established in the United States was in the province of Massachusetts Bay in the year 1641 by order of the general colonial court. In 1647 the same authority declared that free schools should be established within every town having fifty householders under penalty of a fine of £5. This fine was doubled by a declaration made in 1671 and again doubled in 1683. Connecticut established free schools in 1644 and levied a tax for their support. Maryland established free schools in 1694 and levied a tax on negroes, pelts, furs and beef and pork for their support. Governor Berkeley declared in 1649 the hope that free schools would never be established in Virginia, but the towns of Charleston and Elizabeth did establish them in that year, and Elizabeth set aside 200 acres of land and eight cows, the increase from which was applied to support the schools. Four years later the number of cows had increased to forty. Pennsylvania was settled by Penn on the Delaware river in 1681, and the same year a free school, which is still conducted under the auspices of the Friends, or Quakers, was established in Philadelphia. Among the declarations of Penn in his "frame of government" he asserted this immortal truth, long since forgotten by the men who have been responsible for the government of the commonwealth: "Any government is free to the people under it, whatever be the frame, where the law rules, and the people are a party to those laws. More than this is tyranny, oligarchy and confusion." This sentence is inscribed in a bronze tablet implaced in the walls of Independence hall.

Older Still.

Major Pond, the lecture manager, was negotiating with John Kendrick Bangs for the latter's talk on "The Evolution of the Humorist." The major made some inquiries as to the scope of the lecture, and Bangs replied, that it began with Adam and Eve and came down to the present day.

"Can't you give 'em something older than that?" the manager asked jokingly.

The funny man reflected for a moment and then said, "I might work in some of your jokes if you think the audience will stand it."

Opprobrious.

Mrs. Nuritch—Mrs. Betterdaze told me she was going to send her boy to you for a job.

Mr. Nuritch—Yes, she sent him, and I turned him down proper. You'd oughter seen the high handed letter she sent with him; said she sent him to me because he "must have work of some kind, even if he had to work for a mere pittance." The nerve of her callin' me names like that!—Philadelphia Press.

Not True to Nature.

"How did you like that play of rural life?"

"It's a fraud," answered Mr. Truliru ral. "'Tain't true to nature. I understand all them farm folks on the stage stays up till 11 or 12 o'clock every night o' their lives."—Baltimore Herald.

A Fish Story.

"There are as good fish in the sea as were ever taken out of it," remarked Small to Young, who had been refused by Moneybag's daughter.

"Yes; I know, but they are not gold fish."—New York Times.

Up In the World.

"Are they progressive people?"

"Well, a few years ago they were no bodies, and now they can snub whom they please."—Detroit Free Press.

FARMER LIFE IDEAL

THE LOT OF THE TILLER OF THE SOIL IS TO BE ENVIED.

Drudges In City Shops Know Nothing of His Independence, and Although the Work Is Hard and Incessant the Reward Is Sure.

If some of the farmers who are discouraged because they have not made a fortune off their farms and who feel inclined to envy their brother toilers in the city, imagining that life in the city is more desirable than theirs, easier and filled with plenty of leisure to enjoy all the pleasures with which the rustic imagination gilds and glorifies those distant scenes and activities, they need only try to find out their mistake. "Far fields are green" and lose much of their attractiveness upon a nearer view.

To the city man of ordinary means and opportunities, who, like the ordinary farmer, has no bank account to fall back upon in case of emergency, life is one "demnition grind" and without the soothing influences of nature that surround the farmer to quiet the fever and unrest with which the struggle, competition and turmoil around him keep his nerves on the rack day after day. As a rule, such men are not their own masters, but must order their speech, demeanor and inclinations to please the powers that have control over their daily doings in order to keep bread in the mouths and clothes on the backs of both themselves and their families.

The farmer, if he does not feel well, can rise in the morning at whatever hour it pleases him so to do, for an hour or so or a day or two does not make much difference in his affairs, except at the most critical periods of planting and harvesting. He can have his own opinions, and voice them, too, on politics and religion and all the stirring questions of the day without fear of antagonizing the powers that be, who can "sack" him if his views and opinions do not happen to coincide with those of his masters or "overlord" (the boss).

That the farmer is a hard worker nobody can deny. Tilling the soil is not easy work. Since God gave the command to man to "earn his bread by the sweat of his face" the farmer's life has been a life of toil. It takes some strength and effort to dig a living out of the ground. It is not easy to earn a living, much less a fortune, without effort, and the farmer is not the only one who "sweats." Brain workers have no sinecure, although some persons imagine that all they have to do is to sit at a desk and add up figures or to twiddle a pen in their fingers. The life of a salesman behind the counter is most wearisome and monotonous. The beautiful days of spring go by, the birds are singing as they build their nests, the flowers are blooming in the valleys and on the hillsides, and the grass is growing greener and greener in the meadows, yet never a glimpse does he get of the beauty of the bright world except when he can take a car ride of an evening or on a Sunday or holiday.

A grocer's clerk works more hours and harder than the average country boy, who can go to the "corner" and pitch quoits and gossip with his cronies when the city young man is just getting from work, and, as for the man who delivers milk in the city, he has even harder work and longer hours. At 4 in the morning and even earlier his wagon is heard on the streets and himself racing from top to bottom of the high apartment buildings in the cold and sleet of a midwinter's morning or in the enervating heat of summer. At breakneck speed he goes, and one could almost imagine that his life depended upon getting through his rounds in due season. Competition is so great that he must neglect nothing and always be pleasant and obliging to the most unreasonable of customers for fear of losing one. There are the icemen, carrying fifty pounds and often 100 pounds of ice up four flights of stairs, which is no easy task, and as it is not skilled labor the pay is probably not more than it should be, considering the amount of strength expended. Hard as the work is and moderate as is the pay, no man can afford to lose his job, so he has to be very careful not to antagonize his employers.

The man who does business on a small scale and is his own boss probably finds it no easier to make a living, for he has to do the greater part of his own work, and in the case of a bad or unprofitable season is sometimes not so well off as his hireling, who is sure of his wages at least.

That man who owns his land and has good health is a poor farmer who cannot make at least a living for himself and family. It may not be a sumptuous living, but it may be a comparatively comfortable one. This cannot be said of all sorts of occupations.

There is another hope ahead for the farmer. If he doesn't have good luck this year, he may the next. There is always a chance that there will be a better yield in crops and a better price in the market. The element of uncertainty adds zest to life which a settled amount of wages from month to month and from year to year cannot give, and he is always sure of enough to eat on the farm of some sort or another.

The time is coming and is not far distant when the farmer's life will be looked upon as the ideal life by many of the world weary toilers of the crowded cities. Even now the one bright dream of many a drudger in the stores and offices is of a happy time coming when he will have a farm, a home all his own in the country, where he can rest his tired brain and nerves as he sits beneath his own vine and fig—or apple—tree. Whoever despises a farmer's life is a fool; it is the most independent life on earth.—Country Gentleman.

Taming a Bull.

"I hae heard that ye can tame a wild beast jist by lookin' boldly in its e'e and never takin' it awa' for an instant, but I dinna believe it," said Bob Meekin.

"It's quite true, I assure you. The human e'e can frichten the maist savage animal," answered John Tamson.

"Did ye ever try it?" asked Bob.

"Of coorse or I wadna be sae certain aboot it. Ye remember aboot two years ago the farmer at Carseriggan used tae keep a bull. It was the wildest beast ever was seen in oor part o' the country and had nearly killed half a dizzen folk. Ae day as I was comin' ower the park the bull charged me. Weel, after runnin' a wee bittock I jist sat down and glowered it out o' countenance. It never offered tae touch me and went away quite quiet."

"That was wonderfu', but where did ye sit?"

"In the hoose, of coorse, and looked at it through the window while it stood on the other side o' the road."—London Answers.

Sorry He Spoke.

A young matron whose girlish appearance sometimes subjects her to the persecutions of impudent strangers neatly rebuked one of those public nuisances on an elevated railroad train recently. He was dressed in a style that he regarded as very "fetching," and he ogled the young woman persistently. Finally he edged through the crowd until he was directly in front of her, when he bent down and, lifting his hat, said:

"Beg pardon, but I'm sure I've met you somewhere."

"Oh, yes"— began the young woman, in a pleasant voice.

"Delighted"— broke in the youth ecstatically.

"You are the young man who calls on our cook," continued the young woman in a clear voice. "I'll tell Mary that I saw you."—New York Post.

Joys of Flat Life.

"What time of night was it," asked the judge, "when you heard the pistol shot?"

"Between 1:30 and 2," replied the witness.

"Have you a striking clock in the house?"

"No."

"You say you had retired early and the room was dark?"

"Yes."

"Then how do you know what time it was?"

"Because the people in the flat above had just run up the dumbwaiter to put their milk bottles on and the family in the flat below hadn't shaken down their kitchen fire yet."—Newark News.

Betting.

If betting could be stopped, an enormous bulk of those who engage in it—apart, of course, from professional bookmakers—would save a great deal of money, but there is no more chance of abolishing betting than of abolishing champagne, cigars and mutton chops. It would not be a bad thing if bookmakers were licensed, but they never will be, partly because of the difficulties of finding a satisfactory licensing tribunal and chiefly because of the outcry that would be raised about the "legalization of gambling."—Badminton Magazine.

The burnished plumage of the peacock owes its brilliancy and splendor to a healthful condition. Let the bird be sickly, and the plumage droops and grows dull. There is no exception in nature to the rule that beauty depends on health.

Women who see their beauty waning rarely associate the external change with failure of the womanly health. They do not understand the close relation of the general physical health to the health of the delicate womanly organism, until after being cured of womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they find the color returning to the cheek and the flesh to the body.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Several years ago I was very poorly," writes Mrs. May Kelley, of Sylvia, Kans., "so weak I could hardly walk across the floor, and at times suffered severely. I took two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and got well and hardly suffered twelve pounds in two months and was the picture of health. Your medicines have cured me. Almost everybody I meet says: 'You look so much better than you have for several years; you look well now.'"

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a lady's laxative. Nothing equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.

Successful Poultrymen Feed Coulson's Balanced Ration

FOR POULTRY

Fallon, Marin Co., March 3, 1903. To whom it may concern: I have used Coulson's Balanced Ration Egg Food for over three months, feeding it to 2,300 laying hens, and am now getting over 1,200 eggs a day. I am also raising 2,000 little chicks on Coulson's Chick Food, and find it does all it is claimed to do. E. J. CALLON.

Geo. W. Aston, who feeds Coulson's balanced ration egg food, gathers in over 1100 eggs every night.

W. J. Kirkland of Bloomfield, says he has been feeding Coulson's Balanced Ration to his 1800 laying hens, and they are doing very well. He has been feeding Coulson's Growing Chick Food to hss little chicks, which are growing very fast and are healthy and lively.

Henry Hall of Bloomfield, has 1000 fine White Leghorn hens. He feeds them Coulson's Balanced Ration Egg Food and gets between 500 and 600 eggs every day. Mr. Hall also has a fine lot of growing chicks which he feeds Coulson's Chick Food with splendid success.

Grand Jury Report and a Political Fling.

The recent report of the Sonoma County Grand Jury reads more like a political fling at some of our county officials than anything else. Take the case of Sheriff Grace, for instance. As an officer he has made one of the most efficient Sheriffs Sonoma county has ever had. In investigating the affairs of his office during the past four years the Grand Jury found everything in the very best shape, else it is safe to assume, when we consider what did follow, he would have come in for a roasting on that score. The Grand Jury, however, found nothing lax in in Sheriff Grace's office. But instead of commending him for this the Grand Jury's report must needs be get in its political fling against him by referring to the liquor licenses, which have always been collected by former Sheriffs of the county, both Democrats and Republicans. Here is an extract from the fling, and its true intents can readily be seen by those posted in the political affairs of Sonoma county :

"We believe it to be highly detrimental to the morals and peace and the business of our county to place the exclusive power and control of the liquor license into the hands of an official whose apparent interest and well-known business would make it an object to him to issue as many of these licenses to open up as many of these saloons and road houses as possible :

First, because our present Sheriff and Tax-Collector owns and controls the largest liquor dispensing establishment in this part of the State, and as an interested party, should be a disqualified party.

Second, because he receives ten per cent of all the liquor license tax which he collects."

The insinuations contained in the above excerpts from the Grand Jury's report are a very poor recompense to one of the most faithful and conscientious officials that has ever served Sonoma county in any public capacity in so far as looking after the interest of the tax-payers is concerned.

The insinuations that Sheriff Grace may or is using his office to further his private business interests, and Grand Juries should never indulge in insinuations, we take it, are both unjust and cruel, and ought to be beneath the dignity of such an august body of men.

It is true that disorderly road houses or saloons ought to have their licenses revoked and the Supervisors have provided for this very thing in the liquor license ordinance as follows :

"Sec. 6. Any five citizens of the county of Sonoma may file with the Board of Supervisors a complaint in writing (which complaint must be signed by each of said complainants, and must be duly verified by the oath of three of said complainants), that any person, corporation or association is keeping a noisy, boisterous, disorderly or disreputable house, said complaint shall set forth the fact upon which the charge is based, and upon such complaint being filed, the Board of Supervisors shall at once fix a day for the hearing of the same and shall cause a notice in writing to be served upon the party thus complained against; said notice shall notify the said party of the time and place of the hearing of said complaint; and any such person, corporation or association so complained against who fails to appear at the hearing of said matter shall have his license revoked. But if the party complained against appears before the Board of Supervisors at the time set for the hearing of said matter, the Board must proceed to investigate the charges set forth in said complaint, and if upon such investigation it is found that the party complained of has been guilty of keeping a noisy, boisterous, disorderly or disreputable house, the said Board of Supervisors shall immediately revoke the license issued to the party thus found guilty, and by order declare the same forfeited, and shall notify the Tax Collector of such revocation and forfeiture, and the party thus found guilty or who has failed to appear before the Board of Supervisors at the time of the hearing of the charges against him, shall be barred for the period of one year from the date of said order from obtaining a license for carrying on the same or a like business in said county, and the Tax Collector shall during said time issue no license to any such party, and if so issued the same shall be void.

Advices from the Eastern States confirm the report of a serious shortage of the fruit crop owing to the severity of the weather during last month. The confirmation of this reported shortage has created more or less activity among Pacific Coast canners and other handlers of California fruit and they are already in the field contracting for cherries, apricots and other kinds of fruit.

In view of the fact that California fruit will no doubt be in demand this season owing to the cause set forth above it behooves the Sonoma Valley orchardist, and for that matter every fruit-grower in the State, to have a care and not be over-hasty in disposing of the products of their orchards by contract. Everything points to better prices for fruit this year than has been obtained by our farmers for a long time.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution confirms what has frequently been asserted in these columns that the so-called "pure olive oil" manufactured in France and shipped to this country for commerical purposes is for the most part a rank adultertion under a false label. In commenting on this our Southern contemporary, published in one of the great cotton States, remarks : "It is simply wonderful; all the things that can be done with cottonseed oil. In December we shipped 2,909 tons of cottonseed oil to Marseilles, France—and it will soon come back to us as pure olive oil." The fact of the matter is about the only genuine, unadulterated olive oil offered for sale in this country is the California product.

Walking, says The Cosmopolitan, is the simplest, the most natural and the most wholesome of all exercises. No athlete ever trains for a contest, no matter what its nature may be, without walking a considerable distance in the open air each day. Many keep in vigorous health by this alone, and, no matter what other exercise you take, you must walk. But, first of all, learn how to walk. A great many people walk in an aimless, shuffling manner, and secure but little benefit from the exercise. In walking for exercise, the effect is better if the mind is directed toward some pleasurable end. Walk with consciously directed movements until you have brought every muscle under perfect control of your will. Moping along in an aimless, lackadaisical manner does little good physically and harms one mentally.

NEW LUNACY LAW.

A Resident of Glen Ellen First to Come Under its Provisions.

The new law regarding the commital of insane persons to asylums, gives the person charged with insanity the privilege of a jury trial in court if he or she so desires and also an attorney to defend them and provides that they shall be regularly served with a copy of the complaint. Anyway the proceedings come up in court in the same way as in other trials.

The first case under the new law came up in the Superior Court of this county last Monday, says the Press Democrat. The unfortunate person to be examined was Mrs. Frideger who resides near Glen Ellen. Her condition was particularly sad. Judge Seawell informed Mrs. Frideger that she was entitled to an attorney; informed her that she was charged with insanity. Her condition was such that she could not grasp what the court was saying and the provisions of the law in her case seemed an absurdity. Lunacy Commissioners P. A. Meneray and S. S. Bogel and the witnesses were present. Judge Seawell appointed Assistant District Attorney Rolfe Thompson to look after the woman's interests, and then adjourned the hearing until the afternoon, when she was regularly committed to the asylum.

Consumption

The only kind of consumption to fear is "neglected consumption."

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

At the faintest suspicion of consumption get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion and begin regular doses.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Neglected consumption does not exist where Scott's Emulsion is.

Prompt use of Scott's Emulsion checks the disease while it can be checked.

A Notable Young Woman.

Miss EMMA WELLER, who is Secretary of the Young People's Christian Association, at 1818 Madison Ave., New York City.

Your "Favorite Prescription" is a boon to sick and tired women, for it cures them when other medicines fail. I know whereof I speak, for I have had experience with it. For fourteen months I had constant headaches; seemed too weak to perform my daily duties, and when the day was over I was too tired to sleep well. I suffered from nervousness and indigestion, and everything I ate distressed me. Doctored with different physicians but received no relief. After reading one of your books I decided to give your "Favorite Prescription" a trial. Am very glad I did, for I found it was just what I wanted. I commenced to improve at once and kept getting better until, after seven weeks, I was entirely cured. I have remained in perfect health ever since, and remain a firm friend of your "Favorite Prescription."

Yours very truly,
Miss Emma Weller.
(From letter to Dr. Pierce.)

The woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organs, whether she realizes it or not, is being slowly but surely tortured to death. She suffers almost continually with sick headache. She has pains in the back, what she calls "stitches" in the side and shooting pains everywhere. She experiences burning and dragging down sensations. She becomes weak, nervous and despondent. If she consults the average physician, there is not one chance in ten that he will hit upon the real cause of her trouble. He will attribute her bad feelings to stomach, liver, heart or nervous trouble. A woman in this condition should consult some eminent and skilful specialist who has had a wide experience. Dr. R. V. Pierce, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., has, with the assistance of a staff of able physicians, prescribed for many thousands of women. He used most frequently a wonderful medicine for ailing women, which he afterward put up in ready-to-use form and called it Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has stood the test for thirty years. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood, making them strong and well. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration, soothes pain and tones and builds up the nerves. It transforms weak, nervous women into healthy, happy wives and mothers.

"I was an invalid for over a year with change of life," writes Mrs. C. Smith, of Orr, Cascade Co., Mont. "Had pains across the pit of my stomach and such extreme weakness I could hardly walk. I took one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and five of his 'Favorite Prescription' and am entirely well."

A million of suffering women cry with uplifted hands for some relief from the pains and tortures of diseases peculiar to their sex. A million more suffer in silence rather than subject themselves to the abhorrent and humiliating examinations and local treatment so uniformly insisted upon by physicians.

"Female weakness" can be cured—surely, speedily—without exposure, with slight expense—without leaving your own home. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any disorder or disease of the organs distinctly feminine. Perhaps its greatest usefulness is in preparing women for the ordeal of child-birth. Taken during the expectant period it practically eliminates pain and danger at the time of parturition.

Write Dr. Pierce for advice and you will receive an immediate answer and without cost to you. All correspondence strictly confidential.

We also advise all women who suffer great pain at each recurring period to take a good vegetable laxative, such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, just previous to this time, as constipation is usually an aggravating feature of the trouble.

Don't allow the druggist to sell you something "just as good," because it's cheaper. The cheap kind has not the thousands of cures to its credit that Dr. Pierce's medicine has.

Miss Carrie Sprecher, of Mount Morris, Ills., writes Doctor R. V. Pierce as follows:

"I was back in my old home when your letter came. I will try and explain regarding the good I received from your medicines. For over one year I suffered from what my physician pronounced womb trouble. Had doctored with doctors in the east and also in the west but found only temporary relief. The next time of my sickness I found myself no better, and in that way it kept going on from time to time until I became discouraged. I finally resolved to write you for advice. I purchased two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets,' and by using only that small quantity I have found wonderful relief. I say to all who are suffering from troubles similar to mine that it is unnecessary to be sick when one can use Dr. Pierce's remedies."

How to preserve health and beauty are told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send 21 one-cent stamps, TO COVER MAILING ONLY: cloth binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Divinity Club.

Sonoma is verily a city of clubs. There is the Woman's Club, the Young People's Social Club, the Tennis Club, the Yachting Club, the Avoirdupois Club, etc., and yesterday was born unto the great world of clubdom a new social star—the Divinity Club.

Ye membership thus far consisteth of two divines and three lesser lights though heavier weights. As God is also the God of Nature the first services were in the nature of a worship of her visible forms, more especially that form known and designated as Hooker's Falls. Not believing in crucifying the flesh to no purpose a light repast was indulged in at the base of the said falls. To the writer's memory the bill of fare read as follows: Chicago beef (reddish tint), French sardines (several boxes) two bottles (olives a la McGimsey) one dozen hard-boiled eggs, tongue and ham (both devilish good), bread, Sonoma beef, cheese of uncertain origin but fine flavor, cakes, oranges, nuts (to crack mossless jokes fresh for dessert).

One divine slipped on a steep decline and on the downward course nearly touched bottom.

A fact—one of the lesser lights caught a fish 3¼ inches long. It was brought to town as a voucher, as some people are so sceptical about fish reports.

Another divine slipped away through the brush to get some pedro fingered ferns which he secured, as he was guided by one of the lesser lights, said light also lugging home some similar stuff adorned with his favorite color, green.

When opportunity knocks twice to the same people the members of this club will stretch their weary limbs over some portion of the surface of the earth in search of another such time of joyous and refreshing ceremonies. OBSERVER.

INTERESTING TRIAL IN JUDGE SMALL'S COURT

Edward Pond, Charged with Disturbing the Peace, is Acquitted.

Edward Pond, charged with disturbing the peace in rough-housing Geissellman's saloon at Agua Caliente, was tried and acquitted in Justice Small's Court last Wednesday. The defendant, who is a stranger here, claimed to be a miner and prospector with no particular abiding place. He made his appearance in Agua Caliente in an intoxicated condition and drifted into Mr. Geissellman's saloon and it is claimed made himself very offensive to those present. However that may be, Pond was arrested on complaint of Mr. Geissellman, who was unable to appear against the defendant owing to pressing business in Santa Rosa, and Mrs. Geissellman was the most important witness against him. Pond, who claimed to have been a lawyer at one time, defended himself and his knowledge of the law and a glib tongue won for him an acquittal. The jury who tried the case was composed of twelve of Sonoma's representative citizens as follows: W. O. Hocker, Geo. Gies, Skelton Glaister, John Stademan, L. H. Green, S. A. Ringstrom, Wm. Rambo, D. H. Twing. Wm. Stevenson, T. J. McGimsey, Geo. W. Estes and Victor Jansen.

Sonoma Base Ball Team.

The Sonoma Base Ball Team met last Wednesday night and organized with the following permanent officers: Captain, Oscar MacQuiddy; Secretary and Treasurer, Chester Trudgen. A manager for the team will be named later on. New uniforms in gray and red trimmings have been ordered as has also all the paraphernalia necessary for a first-class team.

The base ball grounds in the Quartaroli field have been put in excellent shape and Sonoma now has one of the best diamonds in the valley.

The Bellevue Hotel.

The Bellevue Hotel, El Verano, recently leased to Mr. John Serres of San Francisco, is now open to the public after undergoing extensive repairs. No pains or expense has been spared to make this resort an inviting abiding place for summer visitors from abroad and it is now one of the best appointed resorts in the valley. Mr. Serres is an experienced hotel man and under his management we predict for the Bellevue a most prosperous season. The adv. of the Bellevue, stating terms, etc., appears elsewhere in these columns.

The Native Sons.

Sonoma Parlor, No. 111, N. S. G. W., at a regular meeting held Monday night elected Dr. H. W. Gottenberg a delegate and Fred T. Duhring alternate to the Grand Parlor, which convenes in Bakersfield April 27th. Two new initiates rode the "billy goat." They were Emmet Mullen and John Laux.

In Aid St. Francis' Church

A grand entertainment and social in aid of St. Francis' Church will be held at Union Hall on Saturday evening, April 25th, 1903. The entertainments of St. Francis parish are always delightful affairs and this one will be no exception. The program will be made up of the best local and San Francisco talent. Under the direction of J. C. O'Donnell, the prince of comedians, a comic opera, in one act, entitled "Sonoma Upside Down," will be presented. The genial "Alphonse" and "Gaston" of Examiner fame will appear. They will perform some clever antics and afford much amusement. The evening's entertainment will conclude with a social hop, at which refreshments will be served. Admission will be fifty cents.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used in our family for some time, and always with good results. Last spring I was all run down and got a bottle of it, and as usual received great benefit." MISS BEULAH BOYCE, Stowe, Vt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

PURSE OF MONEY LOST AND FOUND.

Restored to the Owner by an Honest Lad.

Spencer Harris, the invalid twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Harris, on Saturday last, lost a purse containing $52 in gold and silver. The money represented the savings of the little fellow for two years or more and he felt his loss keenly. Late in the afternoon of the day the purse of money was lost it was picked up in the street by Donte Bazalia, another lad, who immediately set out to find the owner. It did not take him long to do this and in a short time little Spencer Harris was again in possession of his savings, which he had given up as lost. The overjoyed boy rewarded young Bazalia for his honesty by presenting him with a $5 gold piece.

LOST A FINE WATCH.

A Sonoma Girl Relieved of the Time Piece by a Pickpocket.

Miss Margaret Burke, formerly of this place but who now resides with her parents in San Francisco, was relieved of a valuable gold watch by a pickpocket in that city last Sunday. The time-piece was attached to Miss Burke's waist by a gold link and clasp and the link was cleverly cut by the thief who made off with the watch without being detected. Miss Burke, who was riding on an over-crowded street car when the time-piece was taken, did not discover the loss until she had alighted from the car. The theft was reported to the police and efforts will be made to recover the watch and arrest the thief.

The Ladies' Whist Club.

At the pretty cottage home of Mrs. Hartley Gottenberg on Napa street the members of the Ladies Whist Club were delightfully entertained last Thursday afternoon by the young hostess. Whist was the principal feature of the occasion and after five games, Miss Pemberton, having scored the most points, was presented with the first prize, which consisted of a handsome burnt wood nut bowl which was artistically done by Mrs. Hartley Gottenberg. The second prize, a dainty little pen wiper and blotter combined, went to Mrs. G. H. Hotz. Mrs. Susie Enos was awarded the booby prize.

Later dainty refreshments were served at tete a tete tables which were prettily adorned with blue forget-me-nots and at 5:30 P. M. the members departed for their repective homes, after having spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

St. Francis' Church.

Commencing to-morrow (Sunday) Mass will be celebrated in St. Francis' Church by Rev. Father Leahy at 10:30 A. M. and on the same day in Mervyn Hall, Glen Ellen at 8:30 A. M. On the following Sunday Mass will be said in Glen Ellen at 10:30 A. M. and in St. Francis' Church at 8:30 A. M. In this way Mass will be celebrated alternately in both places.

Father Onesimus of the Franciscan Order of San Francisco will be in Sonoma on Saturday and Sunday, April 18th and 19th. He will preach in St. Francis' Church in German and English on Sunday at the 8:30 A. M. Mass. The German people are requested to attend.

Interest in the gold diggings is still on the increase. The hills are full of prospectors seeking wealth. No doubt but that some of the enterprising ones will strike it rich. Patience and perseverance conquers all things.

E. M. Cutter, who is running the Ross ranch, has just finished setting out a vineyard of four acres. The vines were procured from Leo Justi who has a large nursery of the different varieties of resistant vines. Mr. Justi is one of the most enterprising ranchers in the valley and identified with all good work for its improvement.

W. H. Doty, the skillful opitician who stopped with us last winter in his palace house on wheels, passed through this burg last Tuesday to Napa on his way to Lake county, where he will remain the rest of the summer. Since leaving here he has added to his conveyance a well stocked library and intends to continue to add improvements as his needs require and taste suggests.

Goodness gracious! What is it? Only think of it. A whole car-load of lumber was dumped at Mr. Skahan's door—and nobody knows whose it is or what it is for. Curiosity is all on tip-toe—the fever runs higher every day. Cannot somebody shed some light on the subject? Anything would be warmly received. Small knots of men are gathered on the street corners, under the trees, in the saloons and Postoffice discussing this most important subject. What is it? This quiet little burg has never been so shaken up since the last earthquake. Somebody do try and come to the relief of the curious ones. It is impossible to predict how long this state of affairs can exist without serious injury. The mental strain is fearful. We lay awake nights pondering over the subject and morning finds us no wiser. We are unfitted for business until this momentous question is settled. It will be the undoing of the town if something isn't known soon. Is it a Carnegie Library, a new jail or a brick plant? How could anything so unheard of happen in this quiet little hamlet where everybody knows his neighbors' business better than his own. What have we done to cause such an upheavel, cause us to be so stirred up and dumbfounded. We are on the ragged edge of despair. For pity sake don't say I told you."

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by F. Duhring. *

DIVIDING THE FEE.

Result of a Bargain Between a Lawyer and a Preacher.

A New York preacher was in conversation with a lawyer member of his church upon the financial rewards of the different professions. The pastor asserted that ministers received less for their work than any other class of professional men. The lawyer disagreed and remarked that the item of wedding fees alone amounted to quite a sum.

"What do you think is the average fee I receive?" asked the clergyman.

"I should call $30 a low average. I have known persons to give $100, and $50 is quite common."

"Your calculation is too high. We marry many poor people," replied the minister.

"I will give you $10 for half your next fee," said the lawyer.

"I will accept the offer," said the minister after hesitating a moment.

The next day a rough looking farmer and a blooming country maid came to the minister to be married. After the ceremony the farmer said:

"We hain't no money, but I have a nice pup here that would make a pet for your children." Then he opened a box, and out rolled a white pup. The minister could hardly contain his mirth, thanked the bridegroom and was soon on his way to the lawyer's office.

"I had no idea," said he, "that I should come to claim your offer so soon, and I should not have accepted it so quickly had I known I was to receive such an unusual fee."

"No backing out now," said the lawyer. "Here's your $10. Hand over half your fee."

The minister demurred a moment, said he would be careful about making such rash bargains in the future and then tumbled the pup out on the lawyer's desk.

"Which half will you take?" he asked.—New York Times.

A Newsboy Banker.

There is a newsboy in City Hall park, New York, who sells diamonds and lends money as a side line. Most of his customers are waiters and young clerks who want to "make a flash" on the installment plan. When he is approached for a loan, he takes the name and place of employment of his prospective customer and tells him to come around the next day. Then he investigates the credit of the applicant, and if he finds him "safe" he is prepared to do business. There are about twenty men and boys who have regular stands in the park. They average about $10 a week from the sale of papers, and many of them do odd jobs of sign polishing and porter work during the off hours, thus bringing up their incomes to $15 and more. The diamond broker, however, is the nabob of the lot.

Don't Stop Your Paper.

Once upon a time a man got mad at the editor and stopped his paper. The next week he sold his corn for 4 cents below the market price. Then his property was sold for taxes because he didn't read the treasurer's sales. He was arrested and fined $8 for going hunting on Sunday simply because he didn't know it was Sunday and paid $700 for a lot of forged notes that had been advertised two weeks and the public cautioned not to negotiate them. He then paid a big American with a foot like a hammer to kick him all the way to the newspaper office, where he paid four years in advance and made the editor sign an agreement to knock him down and rob him if he ever ordered his paper stopped again.—Exchange.

A Loss to Science.

A story is told of the late Professor Snell of Amherst college which relates how he once asked for a definition of the solar corona from a member of his class in astronomy. The young man after a good deal of hesitation and a dread consciousness of impending failure plunged desperately into the statement that he did know what the corona was, but had forgotten. The professor turned to his class with a tragic gesture, "What an incalculable loss to science," he exclaimed, with emotion, "that the only man who ever knew what the sun's corona is has forgotten!"

He Knew It.

The teacher was trying to help the boy. "Now, come, Johnnie," she said, "which is greater, two-thirds or three-quarters?"

The boy did not know.

"Oh, yes, you do," said the teacher hopefully. "Which would you rather have, three-quarters of an apple or two-thirds of an apple?"

"Two-thirds," said the boy on a guess.

"Oh, no," said the teacher hopelessly. "Why, two-thirds would be less than three-quarters."

"I know it," said the boy promptly, "but I don't like apples."

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a tea-spoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never used it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." DEAFNESS CURED.

Louisville Man Originates a Simple Little Device that Instantly Restores the Hearing --- Fits Perfectl Comfortabl and Does Not Show.

190-page Book Free---Tells all About It.

Since the discovery Louisvilleo f a man it is no longer necessary for any deaf person to carry a trumpet, a tube or any such old-fashioned device, for it is now possible for any one to hear perfectly by a simple invention that fits in the ear and cannot be detected. The honor belongs to Mr. Geo. H. Wilson of Louisville, who was himself deaf, and now hears as well as any one. He calls it Wilson's Common Sense Ear Drum, is built on the strictest scientific principles, containing no metal of any kind, and is entirely new in every respect. It is so small that no one can see it, but nevertheless it collects all sound waves and diverts them against the drum head, causing you to hear perfectly. It will do this even when the natural ear drums are partially or entirely destroyed, perforated, scarred, relaxed or thickened. It fits any ear from childhood to old age, and aside from the fact that it does not show, it never causes the hearer irritation, and can be used with comfort day or night.

It will cure deafness in any person no matter how acquired, whether from catarrh, scarlet fever, typhoid or brain fever, measles, whooping cough, gathering in the ear, shocks from artillery or through accidents. It not only cures but stays the progress of deafness and all roaring and buzzing noises. It does this in a simple, sure and scientific way. The effect is immediate.

Let every person who needs this, at once send to the company for its 190-page book, which you can have free. It describes and illustrates Wilson's Common Sense Ear Drums and contains many bona fide letters from numerous users in the United States, Canada, Mexico, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, India. These letters are from people in every station of life, clergymen, physicians, lawyers, merchants, society ladies, etc., and tell the truth about the benefits to be derived from the use of this wonderful little device. You will find among them the names of people in your own town or State, and you are at liberty to write to any of them you wish and secure their opinion as to the merits of the only scientific ear drums for restoring the hearing to its normal condition.

Write to-day and it will not be long before you are ag in hearing. Address, for the free book and convincing evidence, Wilson Ear Drum Co., Todd Building, Louisville, Ky., U. S. N.
